DEATH OF RISHOP LEFEVERE. m the Detroit Advertiser, March 5.]

Bishop Lefevere died at St. Mary's Hospital last evening at 8:05 o'clock. In death of this official the Roman Catholic Church has lost one of its strongest pillars, and Detroit suffers in a cor-responding degree. Atchbishop Purcell, of Cincinnati, was notified by telegraph out regard to party, and predicated upon the idea that his high character will reconcile parties and allay the bitterness the Diocese. In the meantime, however op, but who, owing to some church diffi-cuity, was removed, and is yet living in a monastery somewhere in Germany, we believe. The remains of the deceased

PARAGUAY.

The Difficulties that Brazil has

The Paraguayan contest is not yet closed. President Lopez has collected the remnant of his army at some point in the interior, and is engaged in forti-fying a strong natural position. This will protract the fight, as the allies will have to move slowly and cautiously when they shandon the support of their The Marquis de Caxias and Gen. Herval have resigned, and supreme command has been conferred on the Brazilian General de Souza. Brazil is determined to push on the war column, no matter what such a course may cost in money or men. The Emperor of that country wishes to rule the vast region reached by the Paraguay and its tributaries, and isnce his fieres opposition to Lopez But the allies of Brazil are not disposed to sell their rights to the greedy ruler of the united forces. They see the impendng danger, and hence the factions and parties in the army, and the constant change of commanders. As the army is alled upon to endure greater hardships in the interior of Paraguay, the discontent will reach the rank and file, and then the trouble will become more dark and dangerous. The contest is not yet With Lopez in or out of the country, the Paraguayan hatred for the allies is so ingrained in the masses of Paragusy that they will struggle on while a ray of hope remains. Tired of this uncertain and unsatisfactory toying and tedious probation—sick of hope deferred—the young woman at last brings the doctor to a point, which renders it necessary that he should immediately send for a parson or a lawyer. He prefers the latter, and finds his services very essential to defend him against a claim for $50,000 damages, made against him, by Miss Mary Fergu-son, for the breach of his contract or promise to marry.
